

General Information

Hong Kong Visas

We provide services for immigration into Hong Kong including applications (and renewals, where applicable) for:

- ❖ Employment / investment visas and related work authorizations; *
- ❖ Change of status, such as from visitor visa to employment visa;
- ❖ Dependent visas;
- ❖ Student visas;
- ❖ Training visas;
- ❖ Re-entry visas, including preparing and notarizing Declaration of Identity for Taiwanese passport holders;
- ❖ Extensions of Stay;
- ❖ Unconditional Stays; and
- ❖ Permanent Residence, including applications pursuant to the Qualified Investment Visa program granting residence in Hong Kong with an investment of HK$6.5 million.

Our scope of services includes submitting all required documents including customized application forms and where required, employment or management contracts, letters of appointment, compilation of employment duties and business plans together with preparing clients for selection interviews.

Beyond application submissions, we can also provide other immigration-related services including:

- ❖ Reviewing applications already prepared and where required, training clients to complete application forms and compile supporting documents;
- ❖ Reviewing applicant case summaries and introduction letters for submission, ensuring relevant sensitive information is properly exposed;
- ❖ Training and supporting a client's "sales team" in pursuing its own immigration applications;
- ❖ Supporting introductions of certain investment funds by comprehensively explaining all aspects before investment by clients;
- ❖ Attending investment seminars to speak and answer questions about immigration schemes;
- ❖ Selecting and liaising with immigration posts world-wide to choose speedier processing times and clarify application matters on clients' behalf; and
- ❖ Conducting appeals for declined applications.
